

“

See the person, not the disability

”

Bio

Macos is an accountant living in Sydney. He has been a wheelchair user after injuring his spine during a fall at age 27. Macos is an accountant who started his own firm just a few months before his incident and now struggles to manage his business.

Macos Franco

31 • Accountant • Sydney, NSW

Motivation

- He wants to live with independence and dignity
- He is a sociable person who seeks the opportunity to meet other people
- Make a positive impact on the lives of people with disabilities through his business

Goals

- Continue his career as an accountant
- Minimise the impact of his disabilities and grow his business
- Improve accessibility and support others with disabilities in his workplace

Frustrations

- He faces discrimination in his professional life, limiting his career opportunities
- His disability has proven to be a challenge in expanding his own accounting business
- Accessibility is limited in public spaces, which makes it difficult to participate in society