

“

I want to be a role model for others with disabilities.

”

Bio

John was born with a cognitive disorder that caused him to lose his vision over time. He is currently unemployed and relies on his wife's income to cover living expenses. John volunteers at his local community to provide support for people with disabilities.

John McKenzie

35 • Unemployed • Albury, NSW

Motivations

- Provide for his family
- Be a good role model for others with disabilities
- Create a better future for his children
- Be more independent

Goals

- Find employment
- Improve accessibility for disabled people in his local community
- Develop professional skills

Frustrations

- Limited access to education and employment opportunities
- Difficulty navigating environment
- Technology with assistive technology is expensive
- Lacking financial resources to support his family