Personal Information	Tell us about your disability	-	I have a spinal injury.
		How does your disability affect your daily life?	It has had a significant impact on my mobility and daily activities. My current physical condition requires me to adapt to a new way of life and navigate various challenges.
		Please describe the various challenges	My mobility is significantly restricted. I may require the use of a wheelchair or other assistive devices to navigate my surroundings. Simple actions like walking, climbing stairs, or getting in and out of vehicles become difficult tasks that require careful coordination and support. It takes a toll on my emotional well-being as well. There are moments of frustration, sadness, and even anger as I come to terms with the loss of my previous abilities and the need to rely on others for help. It can be disheartening to face the daily obstacles and limitations that this injury imposes.
